GUARANTEED TO MAKE GRAY HAIR NATURAL COLOR

Q-Ban Is Simple, Healthful Preparation-Satisfaction or Money Back -Don't Use Dyes.

It is not necessary, not even wise, to have grav hair nowadays. But don't use dangerous, dirty, sticky dyes. Turn Back to Nature."

Restore the uniform color of your hair with the aid of Q-Bah Hair Color Restorer. Thousands have done so and are proud of the result. Years of study by expert chemists resulted in Q-Ban, the one preparation that actually works hand in hand with Nature in banishing grav hair in a healthful way.

You simply soply Q-Ban like a shampoo, and your hair will resume a natural color, evenly, gradually, safely, and surely. Your hair will become soft, glossy, abundant, and beautiful. You will look so young you will be delighted. But bewere of imitations as you would of dyes. There is nothing like Q-Ban.

Q-Ban is all ready to use—is guaranteed to be harmless, and is sold under the makers' money back guarantee if not satisfied. It is the only preparation for the purpose so guaranteed. Friday Morning Music Club Gives

The Friday Morning Music Club Chorus was heard in a concert at the Raleigh yesterday forencon under the artistic direction of Heinrich Hammer. The club was assisted by a guest artist, Thamzine Cox, of Harrisburg, and by Mrs. Ralph Barnard, con-

Mrs. Cox has a high soprano voice that was effective in the daintiness of the "Cherry Ripe" by Horn. Her group of solos included selections from Handel, Strauss, Goring, Thomas and a Massenet opera aria. She had to respond with an encore. As incldental soloist, too, she was heard in two numbers with the chorus.

Mrs. Barnard sang three mezze Mrs. Marshall at Recital.

Mrs. Thomas Riley Marshall, Mrs. musical. One missed the deeper tones of her voice, but these songs were

The two opening chorus numbers were particularly lovely for women's voices. "The Fisher," by Horatio Parker, was truly notable in its sug gesting of rippling water, in the blend of the voices and in its climax work. Mr. Hammer wrought a very individual thing on the Cadman "In dian Mountain Song." The chorus in toned the opening passages with a real solo characteristic tone: an un ccompanied section was rich in har mony and distinctly racial, while the contraltos sustained a lovely body of tone against a light, nature passage for the sopranos.

The Henry Hadley contata, "The Nightingale and the Rose" opens with a delightful story of the "Rose Tree" pretation and meaning in tone and diction. It held rich and dynamically developed choral work that was shad ed with artistry. As a musical work however, this captata does not fulfil its promise. Our American composer seems to have lost his inspiration in the latter half and despite the grace of the solo love song it was in sub-stance somewhat banal. Mrs. Robbins and Miss Brickenstein were the able accompanists.
